

During this week activity, I have done some research on Geofencing and set up the firebase database to my project since week 6. So, I will continued working on my android project which I have implemented the chat feature and apply it to the SocialCollab App.